

I would comment on the need for more closed captioned programming on TV. I am particularly surprised that more programs on my local public TV station are not captioned. Since I am hard of hearing, I depend on the captioning to know what the program is all about. More and better captioning is needed.